Reporters Fail to Get Roosevelt KENYON DESERTS to Talk Politics.

Former President Spends About Half an Hour With Newspaper Men, His Only Remarks Being "I Have Noth. ing to Say"-Finally Says When He Has Statement to Make They Will Know It in Advance.

New York, Jan. 25.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, at the Outlook office talked for nearly half an hour to reporters, but would not touch on any subject connected with politics. He spent most of the half hour in replying "I have nothing to say" to ques he said, "you'll know it in advance." Colonel Roosevelt was asked if he had read that Governor Hadley of Missouri had come out for him and said he had not. Questioned about the fact that his name had appeared at the head of the editorial column of the Pittsburg Leader as the Republican candidate the colonel refused to discuss the incident. He also refused to talk about the Oklahoma endorsement.

Otto F. Karbe and Isaac Hodges, members of the One Million club of St. Louis, called upon Colonel Roosevelt. They came from St. Louis to see the former president about the invitation to attend a banquet to be held on Washington's birthday. According to Mr. Karbe, Colonel Roosevelt said he could not attend and could not make any speeches at that time.

When Mr. Karbe mentioned the fact to Colonel Roosevelt that St. Louis had endorsed his candidacy Roosevelt, according to Mr. Karbe, remarked: "I see they're doing things out there."

Although Colonel Roosevelt hadn't anything to say on the Hitchcock incident Ormsby McHarg, who was reported to have been rounding up Roosevelt delegates in the South and West at Mr. Hitchcock's behest, denied any political relation with the postmaster general. Mr. McHarg said he had never been in Frank Hitchcock's office since he has been postmaster general. He added:

Not in Sympathy With Policies.

"I have never presented any matter to the postoffice department relative to the magazine publishers, as I saw alleged in a morning newspaper, and I have never had any business of a personal nature in the postoffice since Hitchcock has been in office. I was not in sympathy with the policies of the administration and I did not want to get tied up with him in any way.

"The story that I have been to Washington to see Hitchcock lately is as false as anything that was ever stated. It's a deliberate effort to try to discredit me by making me a party to his alleged treason.

GREATLY ADMIRES PRESIDENT

In Statement Pledging His Support to Cummins the Junior Senator Takes Occasion to Eulogize Public Services of Present Chief Executive-With draws His Support From Taft With Great Reluctance.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Senator W. S. Kenyon of Iowa formally announced that he will support the candidacy of his colleague, Senator A. B. Cummins, for the Republican presidential nomi nation. It is the understanding that while Judge Kenyon lines up behind Foster, Louisiana's "anti-lottery gov Cummins without mental reservation ernor" from 1892 to 1900 and for the that he withdrew his pledge of support to President Taft with a great deal of reluctance.

MENDING A FAUCET

An Easy Job That Mr. Gimp Tackled With Confidence.

IT GAVE HIM A BIG SURPRISE.

When He Got Through, or as Near Through as He Was Permitted to Get. He Was Rather Subdued-The Plumber's Comment Was Quite Brief.

Mr. Gimp came home from the city the other day and burst into his house with an air that meant business. He smiled when the maid told him his wife was out, laid a parcel on the stairs, took off his coat, rolled up his sleeves, took his parcel and went up package. It contained a monkey of office, and re-organized.

"Thank goodness, my wife's not home!" said Mr. Gimp. "If there is anything upsets a man it is the foolish questions a woman asks when he is of intelligence can do a job in five min- board. utes that a plumber would take all day to do and charge $5. Now!"

Mr. Gimp turned the faucet. Not a drop of water came out. He turned the other. It was dry. They were the bathtub faucets, and the far one had been leaking for a week, while Mr. Gimp promised day by day to attend month.

"Well," said Mr. Gimp as he saw per month that no water came out of the faucets, "that's more sense than I thought that $100 per month. woman possessed. Turned off the water, did she? Didn't let it run all day when there was no need of it, hey? day,

"Lemme see!" he said. "You take off that handle, and you unscrew that top dingus. That's what you do." So he per month. did that. Twice the monkey wrench slipped and he skinned three knuckles, $85 per month. but he got the handle off, and he unscrewed the cap and pulled out the rod | $62.50 per month. that held the washer. Then he peered down into the remaining portion of the faucet and looked at the washer.

The washer seemed in good condiing iron rust on it. If the washer was board. not broken what could be the matter with the thing? There must be something the matter deeper down. He set his pipe wrench around the pipe and grasped the faucet with the monkey wrench. The faucet held like grim death. The more it resisted the more he pushed and pulled and grunted and CASCARETS CLEANSE said strong words.

When the faucet gave at last it gave suddenly, and Mr. Gimp fell over the No Biliousness, Headache. Sick, Sour ide of the bathtub and landed with bump that shook the house. He was up again in a minute and in the bathtub. The faucet was badly marred where the wrench had dug into its twisted awry, but the faucet was off. matter with ft.

"Some fool plumber," said Mr. Gimp angrily, "has put the wrong sort of washer into this faucet. That's what's the matter, and that's all."

He picked out a different sort of

"Now," said Mr. Gimp, and he climbed back into the bathtub. He humped himself down on his knees and looked into the water pipe on then to keep their stomach, liver and which he had to screw the faucet. "Now." he said.

The Time to Do the Counting. In the old days of impetuous warfare caution was not regarded as so much a virtue on the part of a mili tary commander as at present. In a battle between French and Austrians ed the French forces, an officer of the staff said to the marshal: "The enemy are advancing. Shall I send a party -indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, to reconnoiter and see how numerous they are?" "No," said Bugeaud; "we'll count 'em after we've beaten 'em."
